Reversal

Week 1 Group Guide

A series on the economy of God

REVERSAL
THE ECONOMY OF GOD

Overview

The way it is now isn't the way it has to be always. Life with God means being able to depend on dramatic reversals: poor to rich, hurting to healed, last to first. But, we aren't just passive players in these changes. We have a part to play, and that part gives us incredible purpose. Where do you need God to turn things around? That just may be the place he's looking to partner with you. In this series, we will learn how to experience the reversing economy of God.

Week One :: Ben

We all have giants in our lives, taunting us to engage. The question is, will we? Most of us live in fear of the big moments, the big challenges, the big risks. It's understandable. They feel so intimidating. But, they don't have to be. We are never alone in our challenges. Ever. This week, we will discover that, even when it doesn't seem like it, God is working a process in our lives. One that, when we see it, we can't unsee it. This week we discover the process of reversal.

Key Takeaways & Action Items:

- Obedience → Opportunity → Obstacle → Offering
- Resentment blocks obedience
- Obedience determines availability
- Obedience often leads to obstacles
- You must know yourself to fully know God

Discussion Questions:

1. Read 1 Samuel 17
I know it's a childhood story for most, but what are your key take aways from this story? Anything stand out in particular to you?
If you listened to Bens talk Sunday, what were some things you noted that were new to you?
2. List out the Characteristics of David that 1 Samuel 17 states. What are some other characteristics that you know about David?
3. What is the main message that David heard his whole life? ("You don't have what it takes" "You're not good enough" "You're not strong." "You won't amount to anything")
Do any of these messages resonate with you?
Who spoke these messages over you?
4. Do you have resentment towards the people who spoke these messages over you? It's natural to, but is it possible that this resentment is blocking you from obedience to do what God has called you to because it seems "too big"?
5. If David wasn't first obedient to his father who spoke "unworthy" messages over him, David would have never had the opportunity to face the giant and slay him. What are some things you need to be obedient towards that you're holding back from today?
6. We often read this story and think the giant is David's biggest obstacle, but the Kings armor is an obstacle. The king offered it to David as protection, but it would've just weighed him down. What are some things people have done for you/advice given to you that they meant "good" by, but it weighed you down? Did you act on it, or did you give it back?

7. The armor wasn't David's, so it wasn't fitted to him or tested out. David knew he had a slingshot, and all he needed was rocks. David knew he had all the tools he truly needed, and didn't need to borrow someone else's gifts/talents/purpose. What are the things you already have in your toolbox (your talents)? What are some things you need to let go of that aren't fitted for you (talents/gifts you wish you had)?
8. We know that David went into battle WILLINGLY. David was ready to make the ultimate sacrifice if needed.
Read Romans 12:1-2
Are you willing to sacrifice ALL for what He calls you to? How can you offer more, and take less?
9. Ben talked about David's life in a sequence of chairs he sat through
 - a. Chair 1 was the Obedience
 - b. Chair 2 was the Opportunity
 - c. Chair 3 was the Obstacle
 - d. Chair 4 was the Offering

What chair are you sitting in? Like we ask in small groups often, where are you?

-Have you sat in the chair of obedience and are open and willing, or resistant because of resentment?

-Or, are you in the face of new opportunity but scared you're not enough?

-Did you take hold of the opportunity but have been stopped by an obstacle?

-Are you open and willing to offer whatever it takes for His purpose?

- David and Goliath 1 Samuel 17

17 Now the Philistines gathered their forces for war and assembled at Sokoh in Judah. They pitched camp at Ephes Dammim, between Sokoh and Azekah. 2 Saul and the Israelites assembled and camped in the Valley of Elah and drew up their battle line to meet the Philistines. 3 The Philistines occupied one hill and the Israelites another, with the valley between them. 4 A champion named Goliath, who was from Gath, came out of the Philistine camp. His height was six cubits and a span.^[a] 5 He had a bronze helmet on his head and wore a coat of scale armor of bronze weighing five thousand shekels^[b]; 6 on his legs he wore bronze greaves, and a bronze javelin was slung on his back. 7 His spear shaft was like a weaver's rod, and its iron point weighed six hundred shekels.^[c] His shield bearer went ahead of him. 8 Goliath stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel, "Why do you come out and line up for battle? Am I not a Philistine, and are you not the servants of Saul? Choose a man and have him come down to me. 9 If he is able to fight and kill me, we will become your subjects; but if I overcome him and kill him, you will become our subjects and serve us." 10 Then the Philistine said, "This day I defy the armies of Israel! Give me a man and let us fight each other."

11 On hearing the Philistine's words, Saul and all the Israelites were dismayed and terrified.12 Now David was the son of an Ephrathite named Jesse, who was from Bethlehem in Judah. Jesse had eight sons, and in Saul's time he was very old. 13 Jesse's three oldest sons had followed Saul to the war: The firstborn was Eliab; the second, Abinadab; and the third, Shammah. 14 David was the youngest. The three oldest followed Saul, 15 but David went back and forth from Saul to tend his father's sheep at Bethlehem.16 For forty days the Philistine came forward every morning and evening and took his stand.17 Now Jesse said to his son David, "Take this ephah^[d] of roasted grain and these ten loaves of bread for your brothers and hurry to their camp. 18 Take along these ten cheeses to the commander of their unit. See how your brothers are and bring back some assurance^[e] from them. 19 They are with Saul and all the men of Israel in the Valley of Elah, fighting against the Philistines."20 Early in the morning David left the flock in the care of a shepherd, loaded up and set out, as Jesse had directed. He reached the camp as the army was going out to its battle positions, shouting the war cry. 21 Israel and the Philistines were drawing up their lines facing each other. 22 David left his things with the keeper of supplies, ran to the battle lines and asked his brothers how they were. 23 As he was talking with them, Goliath, the Philistine champion from Gath, stepped out from his lines and shouted his usual defiance, and David heard it. 24 Whenever the Israelites saw the man, they all fled from him in great fear.25 Now the Israelites had been saying, "Do you see how this man keeps coming out? He comes out to defy Israel. The king will give great wealth to the man who kills him. He will also give him his daughter in marriage and will exempt his family from taxes in Israel."26 David asked the men standing near him, "What will be done for the man who kills this Philistine and removes this disgrace from Israel? Who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should defy the armies of the living God?"27 They repeated to him what they had been saying and told him, "This is what will be done for the man who kills him."28 When Eliab, David's oldest brother, heard him speaking with the men, he burned with anger at him and asked, "Why have you come down here? And with whom did you leave those few sheep in the wilderness? I know how conceited you are and how wicked your heart is; you came down only to watch the battle."29 "Now what have I done?" said David. "Can't I even speak?" 30 He then turned away to someone else and brought up the same matter, and the men answered him as before. 31 What David said was overheard and reported to Saul, and Saul sent for him.32 David said to Saul, "Let no one lose heart on account of this Philistine; your servant will go and fight him."33 Saul replied, "You are not able to go out against this Philistine and fight him; you are only a young man, and he has been a warrior from his youth."34 But David said to Saul, "Your servant has been keeping his father's sheep. When a lion or a bear came and carried off a sheep from the flock, 35 I went after it, struck it and rescued the sheep from its mouth. When it turned on me, I seized it by its hair, struck it and killed it. 36 Your servant has killed both the lion and the bear; this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, because he has defied the armies of the living God. 37 The Lord who rescued me from the paw of the lion and the paw of the bear will rescue me from the hand of this Philistine." Saul said to David, "Go, and the Lord be with you."38 Then Saul dressed David in his own tunic. He put a coat of armor on him and a bronze helmet on his head. 39 David fastened on his sword over the tunic and tried walking around, because he was not used to them. "I cannot go in these," he said to Saul, "because I am not used to them." So he took them off. 40 Then he took his staff in his hand, chose five smooth stones from the stream, put them in the pouch of his shepherd's bag and, with his sling in his hand, approached the Philistine.41 Meanwhile, the Philistine, with his shield bearer in front of him, kept coming closer to David. 42 He looked David over and saw that he was little more than a boy, glowing with health and handsome, and he despised him. 43 He said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come at me with sticks?" And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. 44 "Come here," he said, "and I'll give your flesh to the birds and the wild animals!"45 David said to the Philistine, "You come against me with sword and spear and javelin, but I come against you in the name of the Lord Almighty, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. 46 This day the Lord will deliver you into my hands, and I'll strike you down and cut off your head. This very day I will give the carcasses of the Philistine army to the birds and the wild animals, and the whole world will know that there is a God in Israel. 47 All those gathered here will know that it is not by sword or spear that the Lord saves; for the battle is the Lord's, and he will give all of you into our hands."48 As the Philistine moved closer to attack him, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet him. 49 Reaching into his bag and taking out a stone, he slung it and struck the Philistine on the forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell facedown on the ground.50 So David triumphed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone; without a sword in his hand he struck down the Philistine and killed him.51 David ran and stood over him. He took hold of the Philistine's sword and drew it from the sheath. After he killed him, he cut off his head with the sword. When the Philistines saw that their hero was dead, they turned and ran. 52 Then the men of Israel and Judah surged forward with a shout and pursued the Philistines to the entrance of Gath and to the gates of Ekron. Their dead were strewn along the Shaaraim road to Gath and Ekron. 53 When the Israelites returned from chasing the Philistines, they plundered their camp.54 David took the Philistine's head and brought it to Jerusalem; he put the Philistine's weapons in his own tent.55 As Saul watched David going out to meet the Philistine, he said to Abner, commander of the army, "Abner, whose son is that young man?" Abner replied, "As surely as you live, Your Majesty, I don't know."56 The king said, "Find out whose son this young man is."57 As soon as David returned from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with David still holding the Philistine's head.58 "Whose son are you, young man?" Saul asked him. David said, "I am the son of your servant Jesse of Bethlehem."

- I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect Romans 12:1-2 (ESV)
